WELLNESS WONDER SALE

Registrations are open for this year's Garage Sale Trail, the Wellness Wonder Sale, brought to you by the Town of Cottesloe and Cancer Support WA, and coming to Cottesloe on Saturday, 22 October at the Cancer Wellness Centre.

Register a stall at this fantastic event and join others to declutter, make some money and meet members of your community. A $20 registration fee, which goes directly to Cancer Support WA, means you will also be supporting a very worthwhile cause.

Or show your support by donating unwanted items including books, clothes, toys and 'bric-a-brac' in good condition, to Cancer Support WA who will sell them at their stall on the day.

Don't miss the Wellness Wonder Sale on Saturday, 22 October from 9am to 1pm at the Cancer Wellness Centre, 80 Railway Street, Cottesloe. Grab a bargain, enjoy live entertainment and a range of food options.

For more information and to register a stall please contact Town of Cottesloe's Sustainability Officer, Melissa Rachan on 9285 5000.

COUNCIL MEETINGS

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR AWARDS – NOMINATE A LOCAL

Nominations for the 2017 Town of Cottesloe Citizen of the Year Awards are now open. Each year the Town acknowledges individuals and local organisations that have made an outstanding contribution during the year or contribute to the local community year after year.

This year, a new award has been introduced and Town of Cottesloe is calling for nominations for Citizen of the Year – Senior (over 65 years), as well as Citizen of the Year, Citizen of the Year – Youth (under 25 years) and Active Citizenship - Community Group or Event.

Awards will be presented on Australia Day, 26 January 2017 as part of the combined Australia Day celebrations for residents of Cottesloe, Peppermint Grove and Mosman Park.

This is your opportunity to help us recognise and reward community members.

Nominations can be submitted online at the Australia Day WA Citizen of the Year website, www.citizenshipawards.com.au or forms are available on the Town's website at www.cottesloe.wa.gov.au or from Council's office at 109 Broome Street, Cottesloe.

Mayor Jo Dawkins with 2016 Citizen of the Year award recipients.

Nominations close on Friday, 21 October.

For more information please contact the Town's Community Development Officer on 9285 5000.

NORTH COTT PLANTS TREES

As part of National Tree Day, students from North Cottesloe Primary School planted 60 bird attracting trees next to the train line on Railway Street, opposite the school. Town of Cottesloe donated the trees with Council workers digging the holes, ready for an enthusiastic group of Year 2 and Year 6 students to plant them. Town of Cottesloe Mayor Jo Dawkins also lent a helping hand on the day.

ATA SAFETY TRUCK

The ATA (Australian Trucking Association) Safety Truck, a real-life truck scenario mobile education centre, toured Western Australia in August and visited the children at Cottesloe Primary School. The message of the Safety Truck is about greater awareness amongst all Western Australians on how to share the road safely with heavy vehicles.

Education Minister Peter Collier, Cottesloe Primary School Principal Graham Dart, Town of Cottesloe Mayor Jo Dawkins and Councillor Rob Thomas welcome the Safety Truck to Cottesloe Primary School with Year 1 students.
