Australia Day 2011

Community Group of the Year
TAPSS – Chairman
Simon Walsh
and Director
Tanya Sander

Young Citizen of the Year
Courtenay Holgate

Citizen of the Year
Ruth Marchant-James

Mayor praises the Awardees

"It is my great pleasure to announce that our Citizen of the Year is a woman whose contribution to the Town of Cottesloe is already a lasting legacy," said Kevin Morgan. "Ruth Marchant-James is a writer and historian who will be remembered long into our future for 'Heritage of the Pines' (first published in 1977) and 'Cottesloe: A Town of Distinction'."

He quoted Oscar Wilde, who said: 'Anyone can make history. Only a great man can write it.'

"But in this case, it's a great woman!"

Courtenay

"Young Citizen of the Year Courtenay Holgate – who also receives a trip on the Leeuwin Sail Training Ship, is a shining example to young and old for her work as a volunteer Street Chaplain with St Phillip's Church. For the past three years she has devoted her summer evenings to the Stillpoint initiative at the beachfront, which has made a significant difference to the level of anti-social behaviour in the Town."

TAPSS

"Community Group of the Year is TAPSS which provides services for frail, aged and younger people with disabilities of our district and would not be possible without the work of a large group of volunteers who donate their time and energy."

"All TAPSS activities depend upon volunteers – but they are guided by a management committee, and their Director Tanya Sander, without whose co-ordination none of these invaluable services could be delivered to our community," said Mayor Morgan.

Twilight Concerts at Civic Centre

HUNDREDS of people enjoyed Cottesloe's hospitality on Australia Day and one important ingredient was the superb location. The Town's Civic Centre is a local gem and you have more opportunities to enjoy it again next month at the Twilight Concerts on the lawns. Another Cottesloe delight – and they are completely free!

Bring a picnic, low chairs, and a rug and enjoy the superb musicianship of local Perth star Jay Weston (Sunday March 13) and OZ Big Band on Sunday March 20. Gates open at 6:30pm and music begins at 7pm.

Celebrate the Family

ST Philips Church is celebrating its centenary this year with Year of the Family and will be hosting another initiative. Family Workshops are being planned, and they would like to hear from parents, carers, playgroups and the general community if you would like to take part.

Planned are Parenting Workshops, dealing with the newborn times, early school years, and the teens; and an eight-session Marriage Course.

Please contact St Phillips on 9385 1042 or Meagan Hodgson at the Council.

Living Smart

LEARN about living sustainably – and share your interest with others. You can do so at the Grove Community Centre over seven Thursday nights (7-9.30pm) plus outings and hands-on gardening sessions, beginning on March 3. Cost $20.

To enrol, or gain more information, please contact Shani on 0417 941 991 – or email stay@thepaintedfish.com.au

COMING EVENTS

Bigger and better – Sculpture by the Sea

SUMMER in Cottesloe is as busy as ever and a highlight of the season is the seventh showing of Sculpture by the Sea – from Thursday March 3 through Tuesday March 22.

Works from more than 60 local, interstate and international artists will transform Perth's most popular beach into a stunning sculpture park overlooking the Indian Ocean.

Cottesloe Council is once again supporting Sculpture by the Sea, which has Mark dived down to our local reef and found fish tangled in lines, and even trapped in discarded spectacle frames.

Of course, prevention is better than cure – but as long as some people create mess we need the decent people who will show up on March 6 to do their bit.

If you would like to help please volunteer by registering at www.cleanupaust-traliaday.org.au/Cottesloe+Beach.

proved an overwhelmingly popular attraction for residents and thousands of visitors. To help accommodate visitors, the popular Cott Cat free bus service will operate daily, right through the exhibition, between the train station and the beach.

Small show

The Council has purchased a sculpture each year and placed them all on permanent display in the Town. In addition, in the lobby of the Council offices is a display of smaller works given to Cottesloe by exhibition organisers. These sculptures are from the 'Sculpture Inside' section of the exhibition and in some instances are miniature versions of artists' bigger works.

(For more detailed information about the show and exhibits, please go to www.sculpturebythesea.com/cottesloe/index.html or phone +61 2 8399 0233.)

Thanks to Town team

IT was probably Cottesloe's the best-organised Australia Day celebration yet, thanks to great planning and implementation by Town staff, and the volunteers from the RSL and the Rotary Club who provided breakfast for hundreds.

Annaliese Davis (left) our events and support officer, co-ordinated the event, with the able assistance of officers from Mosman Park and Peppermint Grove, as well as Meagan Hodgson (right of picture) Cottesloe's new community development officer. Kiernyn Brimble and Kalyan Nicholson – two of our admin officers, also made a very early-morning start to help out on the day.

CLEAN UP AUSTRALIA

CLEAN Up Australia (March 6) is especially relevant when you live and work in such a beautiful part of the State as Cottesloe. This year photographer Mark Binns has given us a striking reminder of the consequences of littering – from an underwater viewpoint.
